FOREWORD

"Alma Mater, we honor thee" --- a song we shall carry in our hearts even though time may erase some of its words from our memories. One day it may even become a song without words, but it will still be a song of love and loyalty for Mary Persons High. Each time we hear or sing its melody we shall be reminded of classmates, classes, teachers, of clubs and parties and sports.

These are the very pictures the 1959 Empescope has sought to preserve; and in the future whether through scene or phrase or snatch of song these days flash back before us, our hearts, remembering, will always feel deep pride in our Alma Mater and deep appreciation of the very worth-while preparation accorded us here.

DEDICATION

*Glad: that we have matured enough to esteem them for their enrichment of our lives; that we have become aware that it is they
   who have kindled and shared our ambitions;
 that we realize their ever-continuing study that they may better equip us for our day;
 that we recognize their unending patience with our youthful lack of serious concern;
 and that we value them among our truest friends---*

Glad, indeed, we gratefully dedicate the 1959 Empescope

To Our Teachers of the Past Twelve Years.
